

The play's THE THING this fall at Wolf PAC for our 3rd-5th grade performers! We are so excited to offer for the first time ever a One-Act play just for your age group!

This program runs from September through January and does not require an audition. Once rehearsals begin, your Director will spend time discovering your talents and then will cast the show accordingly. As you work together to create the world of Once Upon A Wolf, you will learn about acting technique, best practices for developing a realistic character, how to perform with your whole body and most importantly, connecting with your fellow performers to create a full, cohesive show.

Because we are living in a world where the health and safety of each Wolf PAC student is paramount, we are planning a hybrid rehearsal process. That means you will begin with rehearsals online only in September. As of the week of October 12th, you will meet in Wolf PAC's Black Box following all of our Safety Guidelines. Your Director will plan a fabulous, fully-realized production with one final performance that will be safely live streamed (either from an online platform or on-site in our Black Box) to families and friends to watch and enjoy.

Please note: Your child's safety is our top priority. If deemed necessary as the world changes and evolves, on-site programming may be adapted to online programming at any point during the session for part of or all of the remaining classes with no change to tuition.

Synopsis: Sometimes villains are not what they seem. In this cleverly spun One Act play, the Big Bad Wolf suddenly realizes that he would much prefer to live a life of kindness and goodness instead of playing his 'usual' part. Once Upon A Wolf travels from one famous fairy tale to the next in a hilarious, heartfelt re-telling of fairy tale characters as we once knew them.

Cast size: No more than 15 performers will be in a cast in order to continue putting our community's health and safety first. We encourage families to register as soon as possible to ensure a spot in your preferred cast.

**If a cast becomes full, we will begin a Wait List for that section. If there is enough interest, we will consider creating a fourth cast**
